American Society of Government Meeting Professionals <http://www.sgmt.org/>

 Note. I spoke at the ASGMP at one of their annual conferences over 14 years ago.*

This one lecture resulted in over 22 solid written testimonials on company letterhead and many other bookings. It is a great place to showcase your keynote and the audience is filled with nothing but people who can hire you for future lectures

Management Consulting Services

<http://www.meetingmailer.com/sample/anamarianotes.htm>

An email list for purchase emailed exclusively to Key Executives in the Meeting Planner and Travel Incentive sector of the travel industry. This is best use for hotels and travel companies. A speaker flyer might stand out, and it might be a total waste of money. Here are samples of the kind of one-sheet flyers they people on the list are used to seeing. Market to this list with precision, it is not a perfect match of message to market:
